GEORGE TOWN — Big man, big heart and big voice can best describe Sherman Lucharl Tan, the winner of the inaugural 'The One' singing contest held at the Hard Rock Cafe Penang recently.

Belting out Come Together by the Beatles and All About That Bass by Meghan Trainor, Tan effortlessly plucked his guitar to impress the audience and the judges.

The towering entertainer received a huge round of applause from the packed house.

"I'm thrilled to win this competition as it will give me a chance to showcase my talents at the Hard Rock Cafe Osaka on June 27," said an elated Tan, who hails from Johor.

He received RM1,000 and a complimentary two-night stay at Hard Rock Hotel Penang while first runner-up Imran Fadzil Ashak @ Narmi walked away with RM500.

Imran rendered Stop this Train by John Meyer and Baby I'm A Fool by Melody Gardot.

Second runner-up was Amira Sariyati Mohd Hatta @ Mira who received RM250.

Tan regularly performs with other bands in Kuala Lumpur, Ipoh and Penang for gigs and corporate events.

He will be performing at the Summerfest 2015 at The Hard Rock Hotel this weekend.

Mira will take the stage tomorrow.
